

Librarians are available in the central library to answer your questions.

Services provided:

- Answering questions on using the library and its services
- Answering questions on using library software, knowledge repository, and information databases for finding the resources needed by users.
- Sending the requested information via e-mail to users

Have a question? Need assistance?

Use our online form to ask a librarian for help .