Computer Hall is located at the first floor of the central library and is equipped with six PCs. It provides services to faculty members, students, and staff of Tabriz University of medical sciences.