

At the time of separation and transfer of the Central Library to Pashmineh, due to the space limited, the printed format of the thesis was delivered to Faculty of medicine. Since 2006, the Central Library receives only a compact disc of the thesis from master's degree and doctoral degree, that after registering the information in the library software, the file is saved on the CD shelves. The printed format of the thesis is also given to the relevant libraries