

The Central Library of Tabriz University of Medical Sciences, at the same time with the separation of the Ministry of Health, Treatment and Medical Education from the Ministry of Culture and Higher Education, and the separation of medical universities, temporarily began operating in 1987 in the library of the Medicine Faculty. In 2001, at the same time as the transfer of the medical school to the new building, it was separated from the library of the medical school and transferred to the Education Development Center (formerly Pashmineh). The location of the main building of the Central Library, when the study of regional studies was carried out by Iran Ak consultants at the University, The current location was allocated as the Central Library of Medical Sciences and its contract was closed in 1996 according to an agreement, but the executive operation started in 2001 and ended in 2007. At present, the Central Library has started its activity in a building with an area of 5700 square meters. Users include students, academic staff members and staff of Tabriz University of Medical Sciences and children of staff. The Central Library, as the heart of the libraries of Tabriz University of Medical Sciences, is responsible for coordinating and managing all the affairs of its libraries. The Central Library, as the heart of the libraries of Tabriz University of Medical Sciences, is responsible for coordinating and managing all the affairs of its libraries

The Tasks of the Central Library

Execution of foreign orders _ Execution of notification letters _ Collection of library requests _ Preparation and compilation of scientific resources _ Holding specialized training courses for librarians _ Meetings when necessary with library officials _ Continuous follow-up and information of resources Electronic and other print resources through the comprehensive library software and information from the library site